

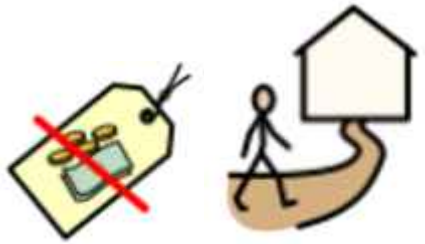
Welcome to Ashby de la Zouch Library

The Library is on North Street

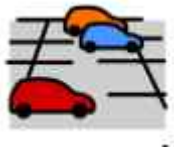
Next door to Ivanhoe School

The library is a large well-lit open space

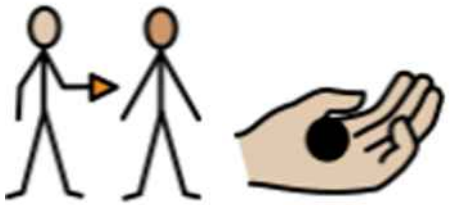
It is wheelchair accessible



It is free to visit



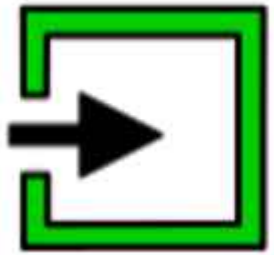
There is paid public parking in North Street car park next to the library



If you have a Blue Badge,

3

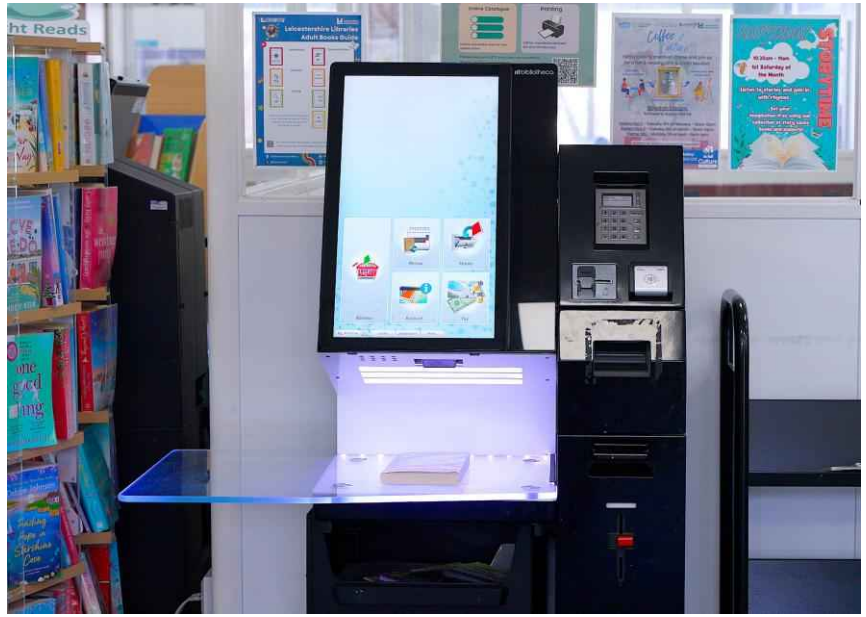
you can park for free for 3 hours

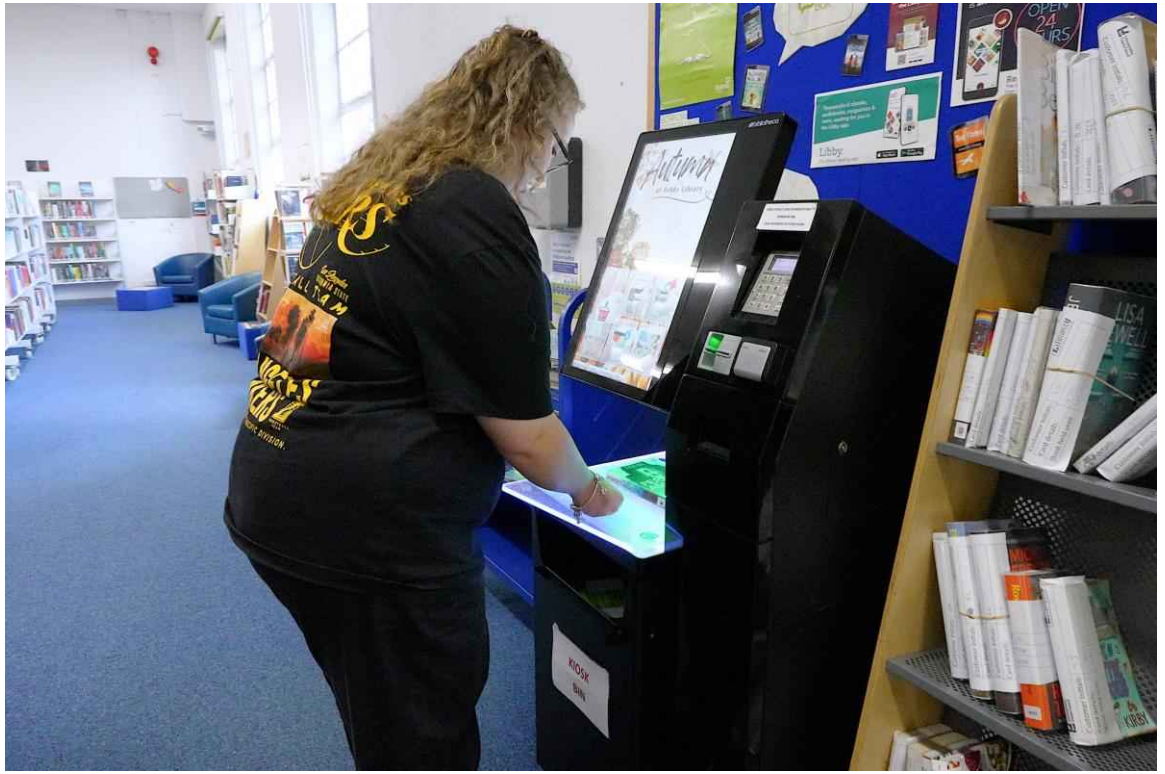


You can use the footpaths to go to the entrance

The library staff are friendly and happy to help you

Staff wear ID Badges





There are self-service kiosks

This is where you can borrow, renew and return your books

It has buttons on the screen you can press to do this

Library staff can show you how to use the self-service kiosks or they can help you at the help-point instead.

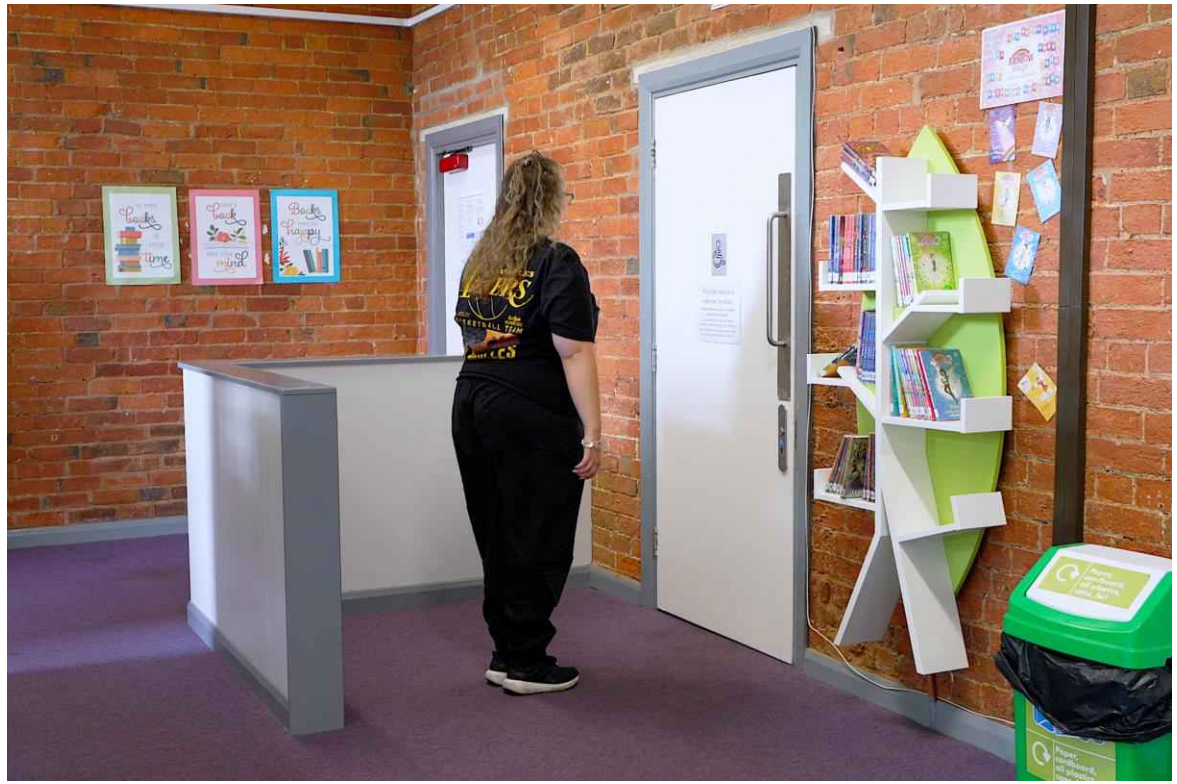
The library has a children's area

It has lots of books

Sometimes events take place here

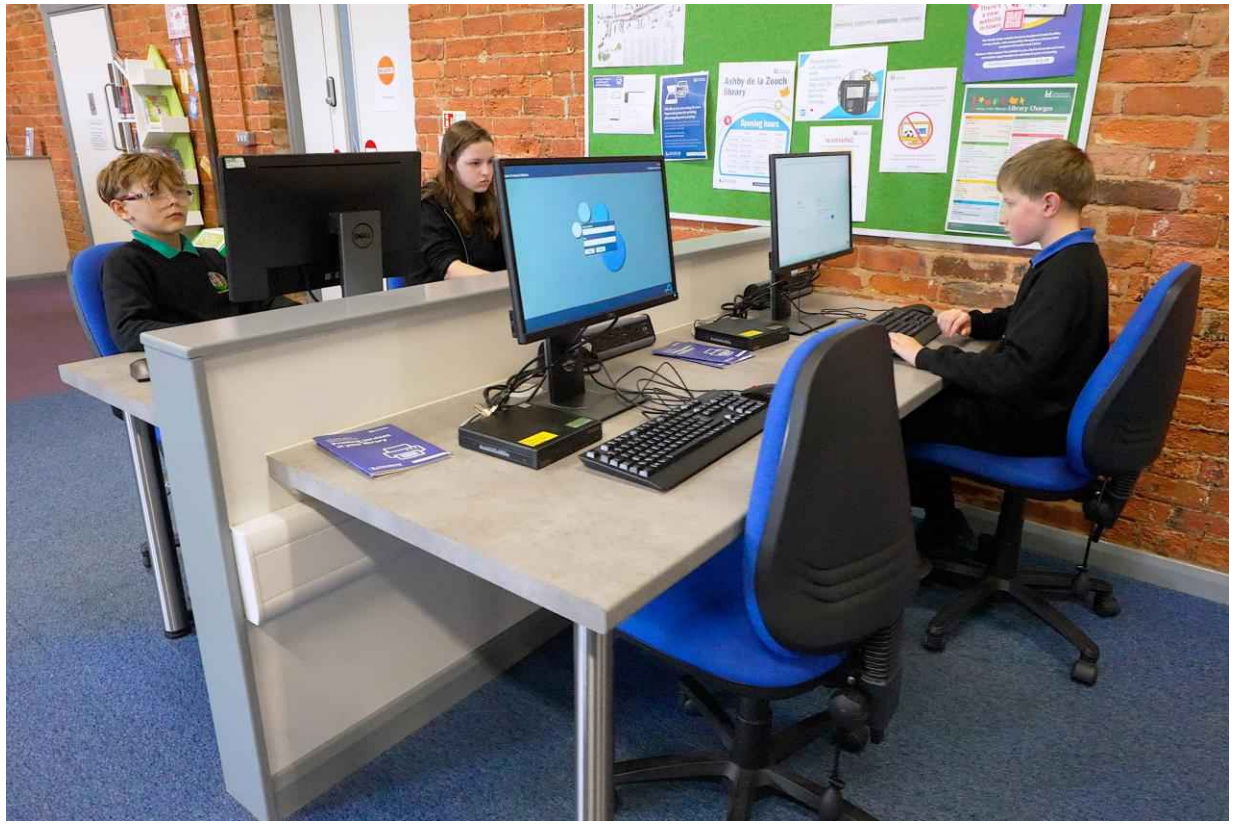


The toilet is at the back of the library

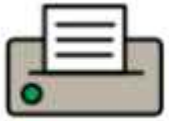
Ask staff for a radar key to use it

In the main area of the library you can find books for adults and young people

There are lots to choose from and some may be in different formats



Computers and Wi-fi are free to use with your library card and PIN number



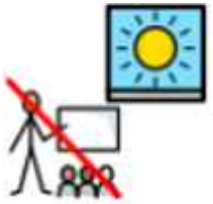
There are printing and scanning facilities

There are chairs and tables

You can stay as long as you like

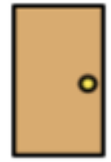
The library may be noisy. You may hear phones ringing

People talking or children playing



It may be louder during school holidays or events.

If it is too loud, you can borrow ear defenders from the staff



When it is time to go you can leave through the main door which will take you back to North Street

We hope you visit us soon
