

Host Support Homes for Ukraine Fair Processing Notice

This notice is to tell you about why we need your information and how we will handle it. This notice is for

Host Support Homes for Ukraine

What Information do we need from you?

We need to know the following about you: your name, address, telephone number, email address, mobile number and your status in relation to being a refugee host.

Why do we need this?

We need this information so we can administer your access to the refugee host support services.

Why are we allowed to process your information?

Data protection law allows us to process your information within certain conditions. In this case we are using our official authority or performance of a public task as the lawful condition for us to do this.

We also need an appropriate lawful reason to process sensitive data. In this case we do not intend to process any sensitive data. In the event that you disclose your sensitive data and we are required to process it we will be relying on your explicit consent.

Who will we share this with?

Sometimes we need to share your information with others. We will only do this when it is necessary in order to offer you this service, or if we are required to do so by law. As part of this processing we will be sharing your personal data with the host support service provider.

How will we keep it secure?

We will take all reasonable steps to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information. Only the people who need to see your personal information will be allowed access to it. We will not send your information outside of the UK.

How long will we keep it for?

We will only keep this information for as long as necessary or as the law requires. For this service we will retain your information for a period of 2 years after the closure of the Homes for Ukraine scheme.

What if something changes?

If the information you provided changes or your circumstances change, please contact HomesforUkraine.gov.uk. If we need to change something like who we want to share this information with, we will contact you to let you know.
