

Early Help Facilitation Team Fair Processing Notice

This notice is to tell you about why we need your information and how we will handle it. This notice is for the Early Facilitation Team to enable them to support your school in delivering a Quick Thinking Plan.

What Information do we need from you?

We need to know the following about you: Name; Date of Birth; Mosaic ID; School; reason for the Quick Thinking Plan, including details of concerns, what is working well, the network, and the child's voice. This may contain special category data.

Why do we need this?

We need this information so that we can offer schools a tailored Quick Thinking Plan to help them support your needs without requiring direct involvement from Children's Social Care or otherwise signpost schools to other services.

Why are we allowed to process your information?

Data protection law allows us to process your information within certain conditions. In this case we are using our legal obligations and our official authority or performance of a public task as the lawful condition for us to do this.

We also need an appropriate lawful reason to process sensitive data. In this case we are processing your sensitive personal data because of substantial public interest and of health or social care requirements.

Who will we share this with?

Sometimes we need to share your information with others. We will only do this when it is necessary to offer you this service, or if we are required to do so by law. Schools will submit a Quick Thinking Plan request in relation to you, and therefore your school may receive a copy of the request. We do not plan to share it with anyone else or use it for anything else.

How will we keep it secure?

We will take all reasonable steps to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information. Only the people who need to see your personal information will be allowed access to it. We will not send your information outside of the UK/ Europe.

How long will we keep it for?

We will only keep this information for as long as necessary or as the law requires. For this service that would normally be 7 years.

What if something changes?

If the information you provided changes or your circumstances change, please contact earlyhelpfacilitationteam@leics.gov.uk. If we need to change something like who we want to share this information with, we will contact you to let you know.

What are your rights?

You may request to see a copy of the personal information we hold about you. The law also provides you with other rights regarding your information including; correction of inaccurate data, objection to processing, moving your information to somewhere else, and in some cases, getting your information deleted.

If you are unhappy with the way your data is being handled or if you need to contact Leicestershire County Council's Data Protection Officer, please contact the Information Governance Team: informationgovernance@leics.gov.uk

If you are not satisfied with any response you may receive from us based on a complaint or concern about your personal information, you then have the option of contacting the Information Commissioners Office to take that complaint further. The Information Commissioners Office does like to see that you have raised a complaint with the Council first and received a response before contacting them. If you do wish to contact them, the address details can be found below:
