

Your community

Your opportunity

Join our exciting young person's volunteering group and help us to uncover the truth behind historical crimes in Melton

Research the stories of:

Peppermint Billy * The Great Stilton Cheese Robbery * Painting the Town Red

Discover the museum collection and learn how to 3D scan objects

Put your creativity skills to the test and design an exciting community display

Participate in a fun photography training session

Are you aged between 13-17?

Interested in Heritage?

Looking to gain new skills and meet new people?

Then come along to our first session to find out more, meet the team and eat some pizza!

When: Thursday night's 4.30-6.30pm. 7 week project, first session starts on the 11th of May

Where: Melton Carnegie Museum, Thorpe End, Melton Mowbray, LE13 1RB

To register your place email Amy Barrs at amy.barrs@leics.gov.uk or call 0116 305 3860