Statement of Reasons

The Leicestershire County Council proposes to change the Leicestershire County Council Consolidation Orders 2017 for Blaby, Charnwood, Harborough, Hinckley & Bosworth, Melton, North West Leicestershire and Oadby & Wigston Borough and Districts.

This proposal is to amend the Parts I to X, and Schedule 1. It also proposes to introduce a Part XI. The changes are required to ensure that the Traffic Regulation Orders are effective in their application to the enforcement of on-street parking restrictions across the County.

The amendments include an update to:

- The interpretation with the introduction of further definitions;
- The prohibition of stopping now includes red routes and urban clearways;
- Permitted parking places introduces a manner of standing and amends the power who can suspend a parking place;
- Pedestrian zones the prohibition has been clarified;
- The exemptions have been amended to include a non-exemption when a prohibition of driving is in effect as a general exemption and for pedestrian zones, street trading exemption included;
- Disc Parking has now been included;
- Disc Parking has now been included in Schedule 1;
- Article references and typographical errors amended.

The order does not propose to amend or introduce any further parking restrictions.
