

Lt Colonel David Young TD DL

David Young has spent 45 years in the marketing and advertising industry. He has worked as a senior executive with a number of companies recently retiring as divisional global operations director for advertising group Ogilvy and Mather.

During the first 22 years of his career David combined his civilian work with time as a Reservist serving with the South Notts. Hussars. He also saw service with 1st Regiment Royal Horse Artillery. He was awarded the Territorial Decoration in 1980.

David is currently Chairman of ABF The Soldiers' Charity, Leicestershire & Rutland Committee. He is a Member of the County's Civil and Military Partnership Board, a Trustee of the Leicester & Leicestershire War Memorial Homes and the Leicestershire Agricultural Society, and is a fellow of the Royal Society of Arts.

