

Ever thought of working for Leicestershire County Council?

Leicestershire County Council is proud to have achieved the 'excellent' status for equality in local government.

We have appeared in the Stonewall top 100 employer list for the past ten years and we value the diversity that our staff can bring to making a real difference in the lives of people from Leicestershire.

Why work for us?

- We are passionate about providing equality and opportunity to our workforce.
- Make a real difference to the people of Leicestershire.
- Enjoy a work-life balance that will enable you to be the best version of yourself.
- Access to a wide range of physical and mental wellbeing initiatives.

Leicestershire County Council has been named as one of the best local authorities for tackling anti-LGBT+ bullying and celebrating difference in its schools.

Our working environment strives for the best possible health and wellbeing for all our staff members and we are proud our staff come from a range of diverse backgrounds!

We have the following workers' groups:

- LGBT+ staff network
- BAME Network
- Disabled Workers' Group
- Working Carers Group

For more information on what it's like to work for us and our latest opportunities, please visit www.leicestershire.gov.uk/jobs-and-volunteering

