

Volunteer role description

Role: Engagement Advisory Panel Volunteer

Organisation: Leicestershire County Council – Adult Social Care

Activities

Are you interested in helping to improve and increase engagement and co-productive activity within Adult Social Care? We are looking for Engagement Advisory Panel volunteers to help us:

- review and critique engagement plans
- share ideas about how and where engagement activities can happen
- bring insight of lived experience to help shape engagement activity
- draw attention to the wide range of issues affecting people living in Leicestershire

Personal development and training opportunities

Volunteers will be supported to:

- Increase their confidence and communication skills through public speaking training and panel discussions
- Be part of a group contributing to improved engagement and co-production activity
- Enhance their IT skills. Basic IT training will be available to all volunteers who require it
- Learn new transferable skills and enhance their CV
- Meet new people and be active and engaged in the community

Volunteers are welcome to bring someone to support them in their role.

When: Once a month for 2 hours

Where: Online to start then moving to County Hall

Supported by: The Co-Production and Engagement Officer

Is this you?

- Live in Leicestershire?
- Have an awareness of, or personal interest in social care services?
- Understand and happy to respect confidentiality?
- A good communicator and able to play an active role at meetings?
- Patient and reliable?
- Have basic IT and telephone skills? - training will be provided
- Have creative ideas and are interested in developing Adult Social Care?

DBS check needed Yes No

Contact: Catherine Tarbuck-Jones 0116 305 0232 / catherine.tarbuck-jones@leics.gov.uk